OLD BUSINESS:

Brief update on the location of items missing from PAC supply room-Anita Godbee

Anita Godbee stated all items are accounted for except for banners. Godbee also stated that the Scarecrow supplies does not belong to the Arts Committee. Donna Thompson suggested to check with Heather Cap about banners. No action taken.

Brief update and discussion of birdhouse project moving forward with local Girl Scout Troop-Cameron Lafoy

Cameron Lafoy stated that Sandy Ingraham with the local Girl Scout Troop in Fayetteville would be happy to get the troops participation on the project. Donna Thompson reiterated that the project was approved as an art project and not construction. She also mentioned that none of the funds are designated for construction materials. Daniel Guyton wanted to know if painting business or troop symbols on the birdhouse was in compliance. Thompson explained yes, as long as its community friendly. No action taken.

New Business:Discussion of changes to budget process as it affects FY2020-Anita Godbee

Anita Godbee stated as of last week, when PAC need supplies, it will come out of the maintenance and operations budget. The project accounts are only for enhancements (examples-structures and murals) over $5000.00. Godbee also mentioned that the budget takes effect July 1,2019.

No action taken.

Other Business

Blaze Jeffries with Parks and Rec would like to do balloons over Fayette. He would need volunteers and T-shirt sizes, for the June 7th and 8th event, Cameron Lafoy said. No action taken.

Daniel Guyon stated he sent out calls regarding the paid lecture. He has one contact thats interested in music and mime. However, he's still in discussion with said contact. No action taken.
